LIFE BEFORE KING

Ms. O'Gilvie lived in San Francisco from the age of nine. She got a lifetime teaching credential to teach grades 7-14 in Texas. She came here directly from Texas, and her first year here at King was in 1963.

SOME OF HER MANY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Ms. O'Gilvie has been here 31 years and has taught typing, computers, and English, been the Director of K.A.R.E., Chairman of the Teacher's Negotiating Council, and a Conflict Resolution Teacher. She started the Human Relations Council, and was responsible for implementing the first fully paid dental plan for teachers.

MS. O'GILVIE

Doug Johnson, one of Ms. O'Gilvie's first students in 1963-64. His son now attends King.

LIFE AFTER KING

Ms. O'Gilvie is excited about retiring. She feels that she has been a good teacher and is excited about going on to new things. She plans to write a book of her memoirs, and work with adults in computers and writing.

MEMORIES

Ms. O'Gilvie's fondest memories are giving awards to students at the Martin Luther King Awards Ceremonies, and the intergration of the Berkeley Schools.
